

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I have known and worked with Chris Britto for a period extending over 12 years. During that time Chris was employed by Food Specialities Ltd, the appointed representative Sales and Marketing office for sale and distribution of our Safcol and Snappy Tom branded products throughout the Middle East Region.

Chris held a senior Sales and Marketing position and assumed the responsibility for the growth and overall management of Safcol brand sales in all designated Middle East markets. On my annual visits to these markets Chris also accompanied me.

I have found Chris to be a very dedicated, professional and experienced senior sales person. He was highly regarded by those with whom he came in contact, as witnessed personally during my market visits when we met with various appointed sub distributors and other customers. Chris is very pro – active, works diligently and is focused, able to empathise and is driven towards achieving set goals.

I am very appreciative of the contribution Chris made to the growth of Safcol's sales in the Middle East, very capably managed under Chris's direction for a number of years. I was very sorry to lose him when he moved on from Food Specialities Ltd and can confidently recommend him.
